Advocates work closest with survivors—yet often have the fewest opportunities for national training.

That's why I'm excited to attend ReloShare's virtual Housing First Advocates Summit, a free training series designed specifically for frontline advocates like me.

Starting this Friday and continuing every Friday in March, these expert-led workshops will provide:

- ✓ Practical strategies to navigate emergency housing
- ✓ Real-world solutions for survivor support
- ✓ Expert insights from national leaders

You'll hear from organizations like NNEDV, The Hotline, Ujima, and The Cloudburst Group, all dedicated to strengthening our work.

 Fridays in March |  Virtual & Free
